We will sup[illegible] laundering where we identify a reasonable risk of money-laundering resulting from, or connected to, the extraction, trade, handling, transport or export of minerals derived from the illegal taxation or extortion of minerals at points of access to mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where minerals are traded by upstream suppliers.

We will ensure that all taxes, fees, and royalties related to mineral extraction, trade and export from conflict-affected and high-risk areas are paid to governments. In accordance with the performance objectives for progressive improvement that should be met before resuming the trade relationship.

Our company is committed to continuous improvement, and we have integrated this principle into our overall management system and the responsibilities of all relevant departments. We regularly review and update our policy to reflect changes in our operations, supply chain, and other business relationships. This policy applies to all our suppliers as well, and we will take active measures to ensure that they are aware of and adhere to this policy. The policy will come into effect immediately and will be published publicly.
